CARER'S ALLOWANCE/ CARER SUPPORT PAYMENT

If you care for someone with Parkinson's, you might be worried about how you'll manage financially. But there is financial support available, so it's important to find out what benefits you're entitled to.

This information explains what Carer's Allowance and Carer Support Payment are, who qualifies, and how to claim.

The information in this publication is correct as of June 2024, but is subject to change. Our most up-to-date information is on our website at parkinsons.org.uk/benefits. Our helpline can also give advice on benefits. Call 0808 800 0303 or email hello@parkinsons.org.uk

What is Carer's Allowance/Carer Support Payment?

Carer's Allowance is a benefit for people who regularly spend at least 35 hours a week caring for someone with substantial care needs. Carer Support Payment is the equivalent new benefit being introduced over 2024 and 2025 in Scotland.

You don't have to be related to the person you're caring for or be living with them to qualify for these benefits.

The person you're caring for must be getting a qualifying benefit (see the 'Do I qualify?' section, below, for a list).

You can qualify for Carer's Allowance/Carer Support Payment even if you've never been employed or paid National Insurance contributions.

Carer's Allowance/Carer Support Payment isn't affected by how much you have in savings. However, if you (the carer) receive weekly earnings of £151 or more after tax, you won't qualify. The benefit is also taxable.

You can get Carer's Allowance/Carer Support Payment even if you, the carer, are disabled and getting Attendance Allowance, Disability Living Allowance, Personal Independence Payment or the Scottish Adult Disability Payment.

Carer's Allowance/Carer Support Payment is not intended to be a wage for caring, or a payment for the services of caring. If you claim Carer's Allowance/Carer Support Payment, it can sometimes reduce the amount of means-tested benefits that the person you care for can claim. To find out more, contact Citizens Advice or another organisation that gives benefits advice – your local welfare rights group, for example.

You can contact the Parkinson's UK helpline on 0808 800 0303 or email hello@parkinsons.org.uk for information about organisations that can help.

Carer Support Payment roll-out in Scotland

The Scottish government is now accepting claims for the new Scottish Carer Support Payment if you live in Dundee, the Western Isles, Perth and Kinross, North and South Lanarkshire or Angus. It will be available from August 2024 in Fife, Aberdeen, Moray, and North, East and South Ayrshire, then nationwide by November 2024.

Social Security Scotland has started to move existing Carer's Allowance claimants to Carer Support Payment. It expects to finish in spring 2025. You don't need to do anything if you currently claim Carer's Allowance. The rules and eligibility criteria for Carer Support Payment are very similar to Carer's Allowance.

Do I qualify?

You must be 16 or over and spending 35 hours or more a week caring for someone who receives a benefit to qualify for Carer's Allowance/ Carer Support Payment. The qualifying benefits are:

- Attendance Allowance
- Disability Living Allowance care component at the middle or highest rate

- Personal Independence Payment daily living component (either rate)
- Adult Disability Payment (only in Scotland)
- Child Disability Payment (only in Scotland) – the middle or highest care rate
- Constant Attendance Allowance from either maximum Industrial Injuries Disablement Benefit or full day rate of War Pension Disablement Benefit
- Armed Forces Independence Payment

Find out more: see our information on Attendance Allowance, and Personal Independence Payment and the Scottish Adult Disability Payment.

You must also:

- be aged 16 or over at the time of your claim

- have been living in England, Scotland or Wales for two of the last three years (and your immigration status doesn't prevent you claiming)
- be 'habitually resident' in the UK (unless you're exempt). If you're unsure, you can contact our helpline on 0808 800 0303 or hello@parkinsons.org.uk for advice
- not be in full-time education (which means you're not on an educational course of 21 hours or more supervised study a week)
- not earn more than £151 a week (after tax), if you're in paid employment

The rules are different in Northern Ireland. Visit www.nidirect.gov.uk/carers-allowance to find out more.

In Scotland, young carers can claim the yearly Young Carer's Grant of £383.75. This is for carers who are aged 16-18, provide care for 16 hours a week or more, and don't receive Carer's Allowance/ Carer Support Payment. You can receive it if you're still in education, in work or unemployed.

How much is Carer's Allowance/Carer Support Payment?

The weekly rate is £81.90.

Do other benefits affect Carer's Allowance/Carer Support Payment?

Yes. You can't be paid Carer's Allowance/Carer Support Payment if you're getting the same amount or more from any of the following benefits:

- Contributory/new-style Employment and Support Allowance
- Severe Disablement Allowance
- Incapacity Benefit
- Maternity Allowance
- State Pension

- Bereavement Allowance, Widow's Benefits or Widowed Parent's Allowance
- Contribution-based/new-style Jobseeker's Allowance

These benefits 'overlap', so you can only get paid the higher of the two benefits. If you can't be paid Carer's Allowance/Carer Support Payment due to the overlapping benefits rule, you should still make a claim if you're eligible because this will help with other benefits (see 'Why should I claim Carer's Allowance/Carer Support Payment?' below).

Why should I claim Carer's Allowance/Carer Support Payment?

Claiming either Carer's Allowance or Carer Support Payment may allow you to get extra on other benefits you receive.

For example, if you qualify for Carer's Allowance/Carer Support Payment, you can get a £45.60-a-week 'carer premium' included in income-related Employment and Support Allowance, Income Support, income-based Jobseeker's Allowance, Pension Credit or Housing Benefit and £198.31 per month included for Universal Credit. The Universal Credit amount is paid if the care is provided even if you don't claim Carer's Allowance or Carer Support Payment.

Find out more: see our information on Employment and Support Allowance, Pension Credit and Universal Credit.

For each week that you're entitled to Carer's Allowance/Carer Support Payment, you get a Class 1 National Insurance credit. This will help towards your entitlement to a State Pension.

In Scotland, if you're entitled to Carer's Allowance/Carer

Support Payment, you get a 'Carer's Allowance/Carer Support Payment Supplement' of £288.60 every six months (in June and December) from the Scottish government.

How is Carer's Allowance/Carer Support Payment paid?

Carer's Allowance/Carer Support Payment can be paid in advance on a weekly basis or in arrears every four weeks.

Carer's Allowance/Carer Support Payment can be paid from the date of the award of the qualifying benefit, such as Personal Independence Payment or Attendance Allowance, as long as you apply within three months of the date of the awarding letter.

Your money will be paid directly into your bank or building society account.

Find out more: if you don't have a bank account, see our general information about benefits. This explains how to get one.

How do I claim Carer's Allowance/Carer Support Payment?

If you live in England or Wales, for Carer's Allowance you'll need to fill in claim form DS700. If you claim a State Pension, you'll need to fill in form DS700(SP).

You can get the claim form by phoning 0800 731 0297 (textphone 0800 731 0317) or you can download it at www.gov.uk/government/publications/carers-allowance-claim-form

You can also apply online at www.gov.uk/carers-allowance/how-to-claim

If you live in Northern Ireland, call 0800 587 0912 (textphone 0800 012 1574) or claim at www.nidirect.gov.uk/services/apply-carers-allowance-online

In Scotland you can make a claim for Carer Support Payment by contacting Social Security Scotland on 0800 182 2222 or online via the myaccount service.

Can a carer get Carer's Allowance/ Carer Support Payment if the person they care for has died?

If the person you're caring for dies, you'll get Carer's Allowance/Carer Support Payment payments for up to eight weeks afterwards.

This is to give carers who have recently been bereaved time to adjust and make plans for their own future.

If you're on an income-related benefit and receive carer premium, the carer premium will also be paid for those eight weeks.

Carer's Credit

Carer's Credit is intended to protect the State Pension rights of carers who aren't able to pay National Insurance contributions and aren't entitled to Carer's Allowance/ Carer Support Payment.

You won't directly receive any money for Carer's Credit. But by filling any gaps in your National Insurance record (for example, because you're unable to work while caring for someone) it will help to protect your State Pension entitlement and other benefits that depend on National Insurance contributions.

You could get it if you care for someone for at least 20 hours a week and aren't entitled to Carer's Allowance/Carer Support Payment.

To claim Carer's Credit, call 0800 731 0297 (textphone 0800 731 0317) or visit www.gov.uk/carers-credit/how-to-claim

MORE INFORMATION AND SUPPORT

Parkinson's nurses

Parkinson's nurses have specialist experience and knowledge of Parkinson's. They can:

- support people coming to terms with their Parkinson's diagnosis
- help people to manage their medication, so they get the best results and fewer side effects
- make referrals to other professionals, such as speech and language therapists and physiotherapists

Some nurses are based in the community, such as at your GP surgery. Others are based in hospital settings and clinics.

Talk to your GP or specialist for more details on speaking to a Parkinson's nurse.
